

Certified Lead Renovator Training

Initial Lead Renovator

This is an initial eight-hour lead renovator training for contractors and employees required by the United States Environmental Protection Agency to protect children during renovation, repair and painting activities that disturb lead-based paint. Beginning April 22, 2010, all contractors that disturb painted surfaces in pre-1978 housing, including window repair and window replacement, will be required to be certified renovators. Please see epa.gov/lead/pubs/renovation.htm for details about EPA requirements.

This training will be conducted in partnership with Midwest Training Institute, an EPA-accredited training provider. Topics include: the lead paint hazards, regulations, tools, personal protective equipment, work area setup, safe work practices, job completion procedures, and recordkeeping.
